

Very brief description of story:

After warming up with a bear hug challenge against their male opponents which arouses their sensuality, two of the great, athletic, female wrestlers take each other on in a special so-called "sex-pin" challenge. This is a competitive nude wrestling bout which sees our wrestlers using pins, more bear hugs, and even lust-filled sexual domination that allows a wrestler to tap into her sexual energy while draining her opponent's sexual energy!

Production note:

This match will incorporate a special rule that might be unusual for some DWW wrestlers, in that it allows the use of a one-armed headlock choke hold. The wrestlers may apply the hold lightly to each other but make it appear to be a strong hold. Borrowing a technique from stage fighting, the submitting girl could guide her opponent's arm around her own neck and apply the amount of pressure she feels is safe for it. It is my hope that the two wrestlers allow themselves to enjoy their wrestling for what may be both scripted and real, and allow themselves to experience sexual orgasm as much as they like, as there is no penalty for cumming even when being sexually dominated.

THE STORY:

This video starts with a referee, who is male (but could be female), coming out to the mat to meet up with two teams of wrestlers - both consisting of a young man and a young woman. The two large athletic women - who we will call the blonde and the brunette (which are temporary names that should be changed to the actual names of the ladies picked to wrestle) - nearly match their male opponents in size, and match them in being bare on the upper body as well!

"This is a long fight which will be fought for a significant monetary prize, and the highlights will be released on a video. Are we ready to fight?" asks the referee.

The two groups agree.

"Then, " says the referee, "let's start with mixed bear hug challenge. Please get into position."

Each man and woman of the opposing teams meet each other at opposite side of the mat - kneeling down. There seems to be erotic tension between the wrestlers.

The referee continued. "We will have two matches go on at the same time for a limited time. If one team submits before the other, then the other team wins. If neither team wins, then the winning team will need to be determined between the two women in what we call a "sex-pin wrestling" match. But I'll review the rules to that later. For now, remember that in a long mutual bear hug, sometimes it's good to hug, and other times it's good to rest. No defense is allowed except the bear hug itself! In this challenge, and the sex-pin challenge too for that matter, passing out will automatically lose you the game. So don't be stubborn and tap out when you need too! May the best team win. Begin!" With that, the referee started a timer.

The wrestlers start wrestling - grappling to get a good bear hug on the other. The best bear hug seems to be where you have your arms under your opponent's arms.

Finally both sets of wrestlers are locked in a mutual bear hug!

The video dissolves on various angles of the action to show the passage of time. The wrestlers try to get a good position on each other - each trying to dig his or her chest into the other's diaphragm to cause numbing pain, and difficult breathing. The women, being slightly shorter than the guys, seem to have an advantage in this position. Each wrestler tries to grapple to get his or her arms under the other's arms - sometimes sliding an arm under the other's arm.

It is early in the match, and the wrestlers hug each other with all their might - moaning and groaning. But no one submits.

Finally we see that a wrestler stop hugging, and it's hard to tell if that wrestler is overwhelmed and ready to submit, or just taking a rest. We see both a male and a female wrestler like this.

Both the other male and female wrestlers tire from hugging, and they start to rest as their opponents sense their weakness and hug them back harder.

As the match progresses, all the wrestlers seem to tire - slinging their heads over each other's shoulders, or throwing their heads back. They seem focussed to hug and breathe slow, although the breathing seems at times to be uneasy.

From over the men's shoulders, both women notice each other, and stare lustily into each other's eyes from a distance.

As all the wrestlers tire, most seem to need to close their eyes to focus on their battle.

We see camera angles that rotate around both pairs of wrestlers. They are tired, stubborn, aggressive, and sexy in their mutual embraces. Each embrace is like a lover's embrace, except that chest and breast are being aggressively ground into each other.

Finally a timer goes off, and the tired wrestlers part. All look tired.

The referee comes out again, and says "Good. You have all fought well. You brave women have shown great endurance, and you men have shown that while you are not inferior with your great upper body strength - it did not make you superior either. The women had a great position to dig their chests into your diaphragms and cause you pain and difficult breathing. But you all seemed to know that it is better to let yourself feel the sensuality of the hug, rather than the pain. Now it is up to the women to finish this fight. Are you up to it ladies?"

The women agree.

"You will continue to try to bear hug each other into submission if you want." says the referee. "For a long but limited time you will be allowed to wrestle this last challenge. You may gain one point so long as you pin the other's shoulder blades and/or buttocks, and at the same time submit the other through a grapevine, or the breast smother, or possibly through a kissing smother, or lastly, through squeezing your opponent's neck with the inside elbow of one arm. Choking is not always allowed at DWW. For safety, you are not allowed to use two arms for choking!"

Both women nod in agreement.

The referee continues. "You may use the sensual bear hug to gain two points, by itself or in combination with a pin. Other submission holds may be used for defense, but not for points. If you are ahead in points, you may immobilize your opponent until she submits, which will give you another point. If all that is understood, you may strip now, and meet each other on the mat."

The two women begin to take what little they are wearing completely off. They both look confident. They come to meet each other on the mat, hovering very close to each other, breathing almost lip-to-lip - their breasts brushing together. Both women's look of confidence seems to melt away as their eyes meet. They both look both excited and fearful toward each other now. Their hearts beat in erotic anticipation of each other, and both take deep breaths.

The referee continues. "It is normal to feel lust now. This match will allow you to tap into your sexual energies. It will allow you to fight the way you both desire to fight, and as such it will be a more honest fight."

Both wrestlers listen to the referee intently - starting to look more serious and focussed now.

The referee continues. "If you submit the other while pinning the other and sexually dominating the other at the same time, an extra point will be added for your submission! To do this you must use a 'sex-pin', which requires you to use your opponent for sexual stimulation. In this case you must hip-thrust to stimulate your opponent using your thigh or genitals. You may find other ways to stimulate your opponent as well. You may stimulate her to weakness, but you may find yourself being stimulated to weakness at the same time. Or to strength. You will find out. Now, you may begin." The referee starts the timer.

Round 1:

Slowly the two wrestlers take each other in a mutual bear hug. Both moan orgasmically as if their touch has released something pent up in them. They swing their heads backwards as they focus on thrusting their hugs into each other.

Now they are cheek-to-cheek, continuing their mutual hug. Both seem to have an equal position on the other.

The blonde releases her hug and lets herself rest and absorb the punishment.

The brunette starts to tire and releases her hug, while the blonde takes to hugging back again.

The brunette takes the blonde in a headlock and forces her to the ground with force enough that the blonde rolls onto her stomach.

The brunette lifts the blonde's legs almost as if she were a wheelbarrow - forcing the unsuspecting blonde to be immobilized on the mat. The brunette then places her own legs between the blonde's, and enacts trib-style stimulation. (Please see but do not publish illustration - "wheelbarrow 1").

The blonde is very surprised and shocked at this, and seems paralyzed! Soon it is pleasure that paralyzes her, as she finds herself closing her eyes and itching for release.

The brunette seems to sexually enjoying this sex duel as well. But she does not seem to be weakening as much as her opponent.

For a long time the blonde is stimulated until her face and body indicate that she has climaxed. Her opponent has literally pleased and drained her of her energy, as she collapses to the mat.

The brunette lifts the blonde partially up in a reverse bear hug. She continually thrusts the hug - making the blonde moan. But the blonde is too stubborn to submit. The brunette tires of the hugging the blonde, and lets the blonde go, who collapses again to the mat.

The brunette lays herself on the blonde, who looks nearly passed out, and takes the blonde's arm and kisses her lovely tanned wrist.

The brunette then takes the wrist for leverage and turns the blonde over and pins her.

The brunette starts sexually hip-thrusting into the blonde and uses one arm to choke her. The blonde reacts by groaning at the thrusts and weakly clawing at the meaty arm that has just snaked around her neck.

The brunette brings herself to finish what might be an unfinished orgasm from earlier.

Finally the blonde weakly submits.

"The brunette is two points ahead." announces the referee.

The brunette weakly gets up to stand at the center of the mat to start a new round. The blonde is still lying on her back on the mat - exhausted.

Round 2:

The two wrestlers start, and the blonde, seeming more rested now, hip-tosses the brunette to the ground and immediately pins her using a torturous grapevine. The shocked brunette yelps and cries, and eventually submits.

"The brunette is one point ahead." announces the referee.

The next round sees the two wrestlers colliding in a mutual bear hug and falling to the mat.

On the mat, they tightly embrace each other while laying on their sides cheek-to-cheek.

"You're strong!" the blonde breathes into the brunette's ear.

"You recovered quickly from my best sex attack. You're strong too!" the brunette breathes back, nearly orgasmically.

Finally the blonde gets both of her arms under the brunette's and controls her in the bear hug so as to pin the brunette.

The blonde repeatedly drops her body like a dead weight onto the brunette. The blonde keeps her legs apart to secure the pin, but she is not sex-pinning the brunette.

The brunette attempts to fight back by trying to trap the blonde's head in a headlock and breast-smother her as well, but the blonde keeps her head centered so as to absorb little punishment.

The brunette tires of the bear hug and taps out.

The referee announces "The blonde is one point ahead."

Round 3:

The brunette starts off the new round by getting revenge for the blonde's previous bear hug - returning it in kind. She lifts up the protesting blonde and bear hugs her hard enough to gain a fairly quick submission - albeit not without getting choked back a little in defense.

The ref announces "The brunette is one point ahead."

Round 4:

The blonde starts out strong in the next round and takes the brunette down to the ground. She manages to yet again get a bear hug applied on the brunette, but the brunette resists being pinned.

The brunette seems to relax and just let the blonde, who is no longer trying to pin her, just bear hug her. For many minutes the wrestlers stay in this position. In the heat of their competition, both look almost as orgasmic as if they were sexually stimulating each other!

Finally the blonde gives up her bear hug and manages to sex-pin the brunette and hold her in a choke hold. The brunette manages to relieve the pressure of the hold by prying the blonde's powerful arm a little bit away from her neck. But the constant sexual stimulation seems to be making the brunette get lost in her pleasure.

The blonde seems lost in her pleasure too. This is an intense sex-pin for BOTH wrestlers! The blonde shifts her position to kiss her opponent - nearly smothering her into submission with her open-mouthed kiss! The brunette struggles to slow her breathing to survive this unusual sexual attack.

Both wrestlers enjoy their female capability to experience multiple orgasms as both climax yet again in their match. Both seem to collapse.

After some time resting, the blonde applies her pressure to the choke hold once again. After a long moment, the brunette, looking nearly passed out, finally submits.

"The blonde is now one point ahead." the ref declares.

Round 5:

Both wrestlers start a new round that sees them both rolling with each other on the mat and tiring out. They end up trading bear hug - sometimes during a sex-pin - and choke holds that seem too weak to have an effect on either wrestler. They even passionately kiss each other at times as if to try to smother each other - head-locking each other into the kiss at the same time. Both come close to submitting each other when they put each other in a leg-scissors defensive "guard" as they both avoid being pinned.

Finally stopping in a mutual embrace, the two wrestlers appear to rest for a time.

The blonde finally springs into action and pins the brunette in a headlock that is powerful enough to make her submit.

"The blonde leads by two points." the ref says.

Round 6:

The brunette nervously grapples against the blonde in the next round, and quickly finds herself being held from behind by the blonde - wrapped up in her long limbs. The blonde appears to be employing the use of immobilization to stay ahead in points!

The blonde seems to be trying to seduce the brunette into not fighting back. She uses her hand to rub against the brunette's vagina - which both shocks the brunette, but also quickly sends her into erotic ecstasy. The brunette closes her eyes and collapses, almost as if she's going to sleep. She twitches and gasps as the blonde continues to work her magic.

The brunette climaxes, and within a long moment, seems to recover. She grabs her opponent's wrist to prevent her opponent from stimulating her further and turns over to pin her opponent. The brunette applies a choke hold while the blonde defends herself using a bear hug. For many moments the two wrestlers maintain this position, moaning with pain and exertion. The brunette tries to use her free arm to pry the blonde's hug off of her, but to no avail.

Finally it is the the blonde who gives up.

"The blonde leads by one point now." says the ref.

Round 7:

The two wrestlers get up to face each other again, but the freshly choked blonde looks woozy. The brunette seems to sense this weakness and takes the blonde down - pinning her and breast-smothering her into a slow but sure submission.

"The wrestlers are now even in points. the ref announces.

Round 8:

The wrestlers start a new round again - this time in a standing mutual bear hug. The blonde, still woozy, seems to collapse. The brunette gently guides her tired opponent to the mat as she maintains her hug on her, but this time sex-pins her as she continues to hug. The blonde seems to avoid climaxing, but she weakly submits within a few moments.

"The brunette gets 3 points for the sex-pin bear hug submission, and is now ahead by 3 as well!" the ref says.

Round 9:

The brunette starts the new round by still trying to take advantage of the blonde's dizzy exhaustion. Instead of risking getting submitted though, the brunette gets behind the blonde and immobilizes her. She lightly places a sleeper hold on the blonde - intentionally not strong enough to submit the blonde - and uses the back of her calf to gently stimulate her opponent's vagina. This match has been as much about a sexual duel as it has been about trying to gain submissions! The blonde's eyes nearly roll back into her head, and she all but faintly fights back. She appears to climax as well.

The brunette shifts her position to hold the blonde in a full nelson - which is a more legal non-submission immobilization hold than a sleeper hold.

For a long time, the blonde seems to just rest.

Finally the blonde simply submits to the immobilization.

The ref says "The brunette is now ahead by 4!"

Round 10:

The blonde appears rested now, and for a long while the two wrestlers grapple, until finally the blonde submits the brunette in a pinning choke hold.

The ref announces "The brunette is ahead by 3 points."

Round 11:

The blonde starts out the new round by once again pinning the brunette - this time trying to get her to submit in a grapevine pin. The brunette manages to escape the hold, but not without getting herself tangled up in a reverse bear hug applied by the blonde. For many minutes the brunette claws at the blonde's wrists as both wrestlers lay on their sides - but it is to no avail. Finally the brunette, seeming to collapse a little, winces in pain and submits.

The ref says "The blonde gets 2 points for that gut-wrenching hold. The brunette is ahead by 1 point."

Round 12:

The brunette starts out strong in the new round, taking the blonde down in a pin. She simply sex-pins the blonde without combining it with any submission hold. She pins the blonde's arms above her head and basically proceeds to make love to the blonde - kissing the immobilized woman all over.

The blonde seems to be falling under the brunette's spell, sighing at the pleasure. Soon the brunette intensifies her hip-thrusts. The blonde seems to be fighting her own temptation to climax. She holds in there!

After quite a long time of sex-pinning, both women seem glossy-eyed and ready to climax. They are in a hard-breathing frenzy!

The brunette finally manages to snake her arm around the blonde's neck. The blonde, with her eyes closed, seems like she barely notices it, and does not even use her newly freed up arm to fight back.

The blonde seems to be experiencing pleasure from the sexual asphyxia.

The referee comes in to take a closer look.

"Be careful." the referee warns. "Sexual asphyxia is risky."

The brunette seems to be choking the blonde with minimum pressure - being almost gentle with her.

After a lengthy sexual stimulation for both women, both collapse.

The referee comes over to check on the blonde, and picks up her arm by her wrist.

The referee lets go of the blonde's wrist. The arm drops down to the brunette's back.

The blonde looks like she's asleep.

The referee announces "The brunette has won the match - by a choke-out!"

The brunette slowly and tiredly gets off of her opponent, but takes her carefully into her arms - cradling her like a baby, and caressing her face.

"You two seemed to fight exactly as you wanted to." says the referee. "You were allowed to employ your skills of using pleasure as a weapon more than pain."

"It was a more honest and enjoyable match that way." says the brunette.

"It should also be enjoyable for you since you won - both for you and your team. You fought a good match, and you should be proud of that." says the referee.

"She fought well too." says the brunette.

"I'm not convinced that I'm the better wrestler. That can't be determined by only one match when it's fought so closely. She's too good for me to say that I am better. But I'm glad she's that good. I'd rather have someone to wrestle who is so good - and even lose to her - than not wrestle her at all. I think she feels the same way."

The blonde is still resting, but she has a slight smile on her face.

The two male wrestlers of both teams are off to the side - their mouths agape from what they just witnessed.
